

Other Terms and Conditions

Please note –

1. Your duty hours will remain 8 hours as per 'duty list' and on call emergency duty timing will be changed as per the convenience of the hospital.
2. You will be required to attend emergency duties as and when called for.
3. You will be required to get yourself insured for unlimited liability as a doctor for medical advice and services rendered by you in the hospital.
4. Liabilities pertaining to any medical advice in correct or wrong or medical negligence and damage suits arising on account of such wrong medical advice / treatment will be solely your personal and individual responsibility either for civil or criminal action launched against you for such an act of negligence and you shall be held responsible for both civil and criminal actions and that the management will bear no responsibility on this account either civil or criminal.
5. It is specifically agreed that this being a charitable hospital - running and continuing of different departments depends on charity available and also looking to modern trend of medical instruments, departments are required to be modified, enlarged or closed down that would naturally increase or reduce the requirement of doctors and so this appointment of yours is also to be continued in that spirit. It is also agreed by you that the decision of the management in such cases will be binding to you and will be final. You are therefore, required to continue your appointment as a doctor in this charitable hospital in the above spirit.
6. You shall carry out your duties diligently, honestly and sincerely and shall perform your duties as per instructions and guidelines given to you by the management from time to time.
7. You shall have to have minimum ----- patients a day for the examination/treatment. You shall not divert the patients or institutional information to any outsider or institution or other hospital so long as you are in the services of hospital.
8. You will not be allowed to carry on any private practice till you are in the services of our hospital.
9. You shall perform your duties with utmost care in a cordial atmosphere and extend your full co-operation with the members of the staff.
10. In case of dispute, it is mandatory to approach to the arbitrations first.